J. J. YEAKLE.

Dr. J. J. Purman, of Washington, D. C., Aid-de-Camp on the National Staff, A. R., was asked as to the result of his advertising in Subscribers' Ad Columns. He answered as follows:

umns. He answered as follows:

"I advertised 10 volumes of The National Tribune and they were sold at a good price to a purchaser in Wisconsin. After this I inserted an ad only one time of Bates's History of Pennsylvania Volunteers, and received 18 answers from eight different States, and sold the books to a comrade in Pennsylvania. Next, I advertised some volumes of fine old magazines, and received answers all the way from Pennsylvania to North Dakota and sold them. After this I offered for sale a phrenological library and received answers all the way from Ohlo to Louisiana. These goods have not yet been sold, simply because we have not yet agreed on terms. I need not go more into detail to show that The National Tribune is not exceeded as an advertising medium in the United States."

Pollard, Mo., Nov. 8, 1902.

Dear Tribune: Let me say a vord about your Subscribers' Advertising Columns—n word of praise. Thirty-five years ago my wife lost a son by an accident on the river. The child was four years of age. The body was not found, and investigation seemed to indicate that he was not drowned. But he was not drowned. But he was placed in the second of the river of the child was four years of age. The body was not found, and investigation seemed to indicate that he was not drowned. But he was lost to her all the same, and she has mourned the uncertainty of his fate ever since. I advertised the fact in The National Tribune last September. In ten days we made to 1. 150 Mulberry street, Newark, N. J., for for mula of "Klondyke Liniment." Sure cure for Rheuribune last September. In ten days we got a letter from him. He is a man now 39 years of age, and did not know he had a mother. Exchanging letters and pletures has fully established his identity, and on the 15th day of this month he will pay his mother a visit. God biess a paper hat can help us like this.

Sure cure for Rheumatism, synthes, swelling, pains. Easy to make; big profits; ready sale.
